THE EDITOR SAYS—

Brother Jack Johnson, a pure pillar of the local Baptist church and a bitter Republican partisan, delivered a talk to Oran voters a few nights ago and gave them to understand that Joe Anderson, Democratic candidate for Sheriff, was a very vile man, without moral character whatever, and if elected would permit a joint of some sort to be operated at every corner, or words to that effect. It was one of these character assassination whispering campaigns that Holy Jack confessed to Joe Anderson in the presence of another that he didn't know what he was talking about, that So-and-So had said that the other fellow had said that thus and so was true and that Jack believed Joe would permit these terrible things to exist, if elected, though he knew nothing about what he was talking about when he let on to the Oran voters at Oran that he did. Another Christian idol gone to hell!

Dutch Van Horne attended the first training camp for officers for the World's War at Ft. Riley, Kas. at $100 per month, but like many others, failed to get a commission. He passed a rigid examination at the time for entrance and failed to say anything about a broken leg bone until he was called on for a high private in the rear ranks at $30 per month then discovered he was unfit for service.

It was said that when an effort was being made to get a gentleman from Illinois to run on the Republican ticket for sheriff, he was assured that $3000 in cash would be forthcoming to elect him, he declined, but we suppose this $3,000 was made available to the drafted candidate for this office to be used in his campaign and it looks like some alleged Democrats were getting their part of this money while the getting is good.—Illmo Jimplicute.

The Standard editor is against Frank W. Van Horne for sheriff strictly because he is not on the Democratic ticket. He is no angel, neither are we, but we are for the nominees of our party first. Frank never made a pronounced success as a school teacher and as a farmer hasn't set the world afire to date. Just why he will make a better sheriff than anybody else is the bunk.

We wonder how Dutch Van Horne got hold of the copy of The Standard that he carried with him and read from in his campaign, as he is not a subscriber. However, we thank him for the publicity and if he will call at the office will furnish him with other copies.

The next time that Editor Chilton of Caruthersville and Editor Blanton of Sikeston go out on a lark and get their cars mixed up we would advise them not to give the incident too much publicity. The story of someone stealing a car from an editor in one town and leaving it at the door of an editor in another town sounds just a bit fishy.—Jackson Cash Book.

The County Court in session last Thursday afternoon awarded the printing of the general election ballots to the Illinois Jimplicute at $30 per thousand, plus 50 cents for each change in township offices, plus assorting in voting precincts and delivering. The Sikeston Standard will do the work. This is the very same identical figure as charged by The Standard for the printing complete as specified by law and as ordered by the Clerk of the County Court and delivered in Benton, that Candidate Van Horne is charging. Readers of The Standard who hear Candidate Van Horne charge The Standard with being out of line, will bear in mind that if he is honest in one instance he must be dishonest in the other.

The Soviet Russian Government is interested in growing the delicious, yellow papaw found in such abundance in the Wabash Valley of the United States. Dr. Albert Reiff Bechtel, head of Wabash College department of botany, has received a request from Lenin Academy of Science at Leningrad for a quantity of papaw seed. We are in favor of sending them plenty. Don't know anything worse grown in the United States than this fruit unless it is the wild May apple.

Politics make strange bed fellows and that is the reason we voted against giving women the right to vote!

AUTOMOBILE WRECKS MAR ACTIVE BUSINESS WEEK-END

Sikeston merchants reported one of the busiest trade days for several months Saturday, but the rush of buyers was accompanied by a greater than average number of automobile wrecks.

Lloyd "Bill" Cook, driving from East Prairie to his home near Klein's Island, wrapped his Model T Ford pickup truck around bridge railing at the second ditch west of Sikeston about 6:45 o'clock Saturday evening. The machine splintered 4-inch pipe forming uprights on the bridge railing, then careened across the highway, striking the opposite side of the bridge, and finally came to a halt on the right hand bridge rail, which also was torn up.

Cook, slightly under the influence of intoxicants, was patched up by Dr. T. C. McClure, who found numerous scratches about his head, and left hand. A passenger, a lad 14 to 16 years old, was slightly hurt, but declined medical attention.

Sensenbaugh's carried the remains of the flier to their garage here.

MODEL T CLASHES WITH A FORD SUNDAY

A Model T Ford, pickup body, belonging to the Kindred boys culled heads Sunday evening about 7 o'clock with a Model A flier driven by G. W. Zacher, Jr., on Kingshighway just south of the intersection with College Avenue. Both machines were wrecked, although occupants escaped with minor injuries.

The Zacher car had just been repaired following an accident two weeks ago in which Mr. Zacher and Lon Swanner figures near Osceola, Ark. The young man had permission to use the automobile Sunday night in order to go to League, and was on his way to pick up Sam Bowman when the crash caused changed plans. Zacher swerved around the Woods Dairy delivery truck, also northbound on Kingshighway, and collided head-on with the Kindred machine, which happened to have only one dim headlight.

GLENN JOYNER IMITATES TOP AT DYE'S CORNER

Glenn Joyner, northbound on Optional 61 or South Kingshighway, happened to find himself in front of Toby Davenport's machine on Malone avenue Sunday morning about 7 o'clock. Davenport of Dexter, missed a full tackle, and merely clipped the rear wheels of the Joyner machine spinning it around knocking out two wheels and a windshield. Young Joyner sustained a slight cut on his forehead.

SAND TRUCK AND RENT-A-CAR MIX

A Chrysler "50" operated by Powers & Littleton's Drive-It-Yourself Company was wrecked Saturday evening about 5:45 o'clock when the machine driven by Lee Oliver crashed into a heavily loaded sand truck on Highway 60 near Trousdale's Garage. Henry Bolden, owner of the truck, stated that he had a load of about 7000 pounds of sand.

Wallace Atnip, passenger in the Chrysler, suffered a broken nose, a horseshoe-shaped cut on his left cheek, and other minor injuries. The driver, Lee Oliver, was not seriously hurt.

The impact of the collision mashed in the radiator of the Chrysler, and shoved the engine backwards under the dash. The left front end of Bolden's truck was also damaged.

Trouble piled up for Powers & Littleton when a group of negroes, who had rented the Graham-Page sedan, anticipated a corner on Highway 60 near Bertrand, turned and found a tree staring them in the face. The corner did not exist. Powers & Littleton had rented the car to Thomas Anderson, who loaded a group of his friends into the machine and was returning from Charleston when the wreck happened about 2 a. m. Sunday. The machine was damaged to the extent of about $200. It was towed to Sensenbaugh's and placed in a stall adjoining the wrecked Chrysler.

COTTON SEED TRUCK DRIVER TAKES DITCH TO AVOID WRECK

The driver of a Richardson-DeLisle-Pinkey cotton seed truck chose the shoulder and ditch of the highway 7 miles south of Sikeston Sunday about 5 o'clock, in preference to striking a carload of women and children. The truck eased over into loose gravel near a culvert, and toppled over into the ditch, tearing up the truck bed. A passenger on top of the cotton seed truck suffered a broken arm.

BAILEY RETURNS FROM JEFF CITY FACT FINDING TOUR

Roger Bailey, special attorney for the City in the Missouri Utilities ouster proceeding, returning to Sikeston Saturday, having spent from Tuesday in the Capital City gathering data relative to filing for a hearing before the Public Service Commission.

Attorney Bailey stated Monday that he would not be ready to show his hand just yet, but promised that application for a hearing would be filed in the near future. The Missouri Supreme Court recently denied a Quo Warranto suit filed by the city, and placed the final decision of the ouster matter with the Commission.

The Missouri Utilities Company is operating in competition with a Municipal Light and Power Plant here, and contends that a certificate of public convenience and necessity, granted years ago by the Public Service Commission is still in effect.

CLOTHING THIEVES BUSY FRIDAY NIGHT DURING FRIDAY FOOTBALL GAME

While hundreds of Sikestonians were cheering their football boys to a non-conference victory over the Poplar Bluff Mules Friday night, sneak thieves entered two homes and made their get-away with dresses, suits and jewelry.

The Harry Smith home on Kingshighway was entered while the family was out. Here the prowlers selected five dresses belonging to Mrs. Louis Emory Baker, a winter coat, the property of Mrs. Smith and the latter's diamond wedding ring.

A similar visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arden Ellise on North Ranney street netted a suit and football sweater which formerly belonged to Cletus Bidwell, high school faculty member who rooms at the house.

Later it was discovered that a fine watch of Mr. Ellis' and a revolver had been taken. Entrance was gained by slitting a back window screen.

Sikeston's Republican Editor Clint H. Denman Pleads With Voters to Elect Anderson Sheriff

Sikeston's dyed-in-the-wool Republican newspaper editor, Clint H. Denman, published an eloquent editorial in his issue of the Sikeston Herald dated October 20 over the caption "Remember Madison County".

In fact, we think so much of the article that we are reprinting it in full.

Here it is:

"When folks cast their vote for sheriff next month, they can well afford to remember what a bad sheriff meant to Madison County. In the Madison County seat, it will be recalled, each of the two banks of the town was recently robbed. The sheriff is charged with assisting in the robbing of one bank and it is rumored that he may have assisted in robbing the other. The office of sheriff of a county is too important for anybody but the best men to fill."

Clint, that is one of the nicest editorials you ever wrote. You omitted only one minor detail. It is a mere trifle, but we merely recall that C. O. Simmons of Madison County was elected on the REPUBLICAN (can-do-no-wrong) ticket. Just an oversight we feel sure.

Again, we are tempted to laud and magnify your statement to the effect that the office of sheriff is too important for anybody but the best men to fill. Right! And for that reason (keeping always before us your warning regarding the record of a Republican sheriff in Madison County) we anticipate that the Democracy of Scott County will have all the more reason to go down the line for Joe Anderson, Democratic candidate for sheriff.

You see, Clint o' boy, we've been in this political game about as long as the next one, and we know that you know if C. O. Simmons' name appeared on the ballot as a Republican, you'd vote for C. O. Simmons. We realize that you might squirm a bit, and bark to the party bosses, but when the time came to spread ink, or to mark that ballot, C. O. Simmons' name would be preceded by the prettiest "X" that ever a straight-laced G. O. P. produced. And white-wash. Say, if that jailbird happened to be on your ticket, two weeks of Republican propaganda would wash his dirty linen as clean as that of your famous Bishop, Teapot Dome Harding, or Prosperity-will-remain Coolidge.

Yes sir, Clint, we are surprised at this display of intestinal stamina on your part. We had sort of overlooked the fine record of your brother-in-party Simmons up there in your part of the country, but believe you me, by the time the boys down here compare a few records, Joe will find a lot of strays right there in the pack where they belong in the first place.

And by the way on whose ticket is Frank running?

The measure of the man, in your estimation and that of your associates, is his Republicanism—not his character. But we are straying from the point. The office of sheriff is too important for anybody but the "best man"—which is reason enough for any Democrat in Scott County to entrust the office to Joe Anderson.

And Clint, just as an after thought. Remember the name of Walter P. Robertson, another REPUBLICAN sheriff, who got into some sort of a brawl over liquor in Pemiscot County? We sort of remember the name Robertson and in our sketchy, hazy manner recall liquor ring, Federal indictment, a trial in Cape Girardeau and other such minor details. You might look that up, also.

You see, Clint, we also, are interested in seeing a good man in the important office of sheriff of Scott County. Now don't go associating Frank's name with such men as Simmons and Robertson. We know that he is not in the same class, but as a matter of record the only Missouri sheriffs who have a record happen to be members of your party, and of the party which adopted Frank.

Chances are Frank has not been away from his first political love long enough to absorb the taint which has been reflected upon the Party by Simmons and Robertson, but we believe we're going to go down the line for Joe just to be on the safe side.

Soon as this preliminary skirmish is out of the way, we'll roll out the heavy guns on behalf of Joe. We'll let you know in time to get in on the fireworks.

In the meantime, thanks again on behalf of the Democratic County Committee for the splendid editorial last Thursday on behalf of Anderson.

P. S.: In case you wish to follow your own advice and elect a good sheriff, have Frank haul his charts around some afternoon and explain how you can vote for Joe, and still count one more for Mr. Hoovah.

Beautiful assortment of ladies' handkerchiefs.—Elite Hat Shop.

It couldn't be done but Coach Mahew's crippled Bulldogs turned the trick neatly and with dispatch last Friday night when they met and defeated the visiting Poplar Bluff Mules by a score of 6 to 0.

The push came in the final quarter when Young heaved an exceptionally long pass to Bob Jackson for 36 yards. Jackson raced five yards with Jett, fleet Mule back, missing the tackle by inches at the goal line. Moll on the previous play donated on the pigskin to the boys when he intercepted a pass which bounced out of the arms of a Bluffian on the visitor's 41-yard line. The kick for extra point was wild, but that six-point lead was sufficient.

The Mules came over top heavy favorites, having, according to scribers and sports dopsters on their own newspapers, at least a 30-point advantage, and for a reason. The Mules had won in four starts, defeating Jackson 6-0, and Caruthersville, Doniphan and Puxico by larger scores. Two of their wins this season were against Little Six Conference foes, and two against non-conference teams.

Two things were outstanding in the game, one was the remarkably successful passing attack uncoiled by the Bulldogs, and the other was the even more surprising defensive work of the Sikeston line. Time and again Jett, Reed, White and Hanna hammered and pounded at the forward wall, but the Sikestonians absorbed the shocks and allowed only slight gains, or broke through and smeared the Bluff ball luggers for healthy losses.

No better indication of good defensive work can be found than the fact that Jett, Mule quarterback was forced to send Townley back to punt out of danger twelve times, while the Bulldogs called on Caldwell's toe nine times during the contest.

Mules Threaten First

The Mules started with a rush that carried the ball down the field to the Sikeston 14-yard marker, but there the attack fizzled out and the Bulldogs took possession and punted out of danger. Two stabs at the Sikeston line netted the Mules only four yards, then Moll intercepted a pass on his own 25-yard line and the Bulldogs started their drive to the Bluff 10-yard line to raise Sikeston hopes to fever pitch. Moll hit the line for 3 yards. Sikeston opened up its surprise air attack with a pass from Young to Moll for 8 yards. Bluff was offside, but the Bulldogs accepted the gain instead of the penalty. Young gained a yard on a reverse, and then flipped to Jones for fifteen yards. Moll made no gain, but Bluff was penalized 15 yards for holding, and the Bulldogs march was temporarily slowed up with a 3-yard loss when Moll was piled behind the line. Caldwell made good two yards on the next play, which was followed by a 29-yard heave Young to Jackson, placing the ball on the Bluff 10-yard line.

Moll bucked the line twice for short gains, two Sikeston passes were incomplete and the Mules took the ball on their own 14-yard line on downs.

A fifteen-yard Sikeston penalty and an exchange of punts placed the ball on the Bluff 42-yard line as the quarter ended with the Mules in possession of the ball.

The two teams played on fairly even terms during the second quarter. Each side had a punt blocked, but neither team could muster sufficient punch to take advantage of the break. The locals played defensive ball during most of the quarter netting only 11 yards from scrimmage to 27 for the visitors. The Mules earned two first downs during the frame, leaving the Sikeston score sheet blank, gaining one of their first and tens by an end run by Jett, and another by a pass good for 27 yards. The quarter ended with the Bulldogs in possession of the ball on their own 18-yard line.

Official Squabble Mars Third

A Sikeston threat in the third quarter stopped on the Bluff 2-foot line when everyone connected with the game milled about in an attempt to settle an unusual situation for nearly fifteen minutes.

Young had recovered the kickoff, which Robertson fumbled, giving the ball to Sikeston on the Bluff 34-marker on the first play of the quarter. Moll hit for three, and Young reeled off ten more for a first down on the Bluff 22-yard line. Moll hit left tackle for two yards, and Young added another at center. Moll lost 2 at right end, and an incomplete pass gave the ball to the Mules on their own 22-yard mark.

Jett and Hanna were unable to dent the Sikeston line for more than a yard on two attempts, and Hanna punted 32 yards to the Sikeston 45-yard line. Young returned to his own 45-yard line. Two Sikeston line plays netted 6 yards, a pass failed, and Caldwell punted on the Bluff 5-yard line.

Townley's bad kick rolled out of bounds on the 12-yard line, and the Bulldogs accepted a made-to-order opportunity to score.

Moll gained 2 yards and plunged through again to the 5-yard marker. He stabbed once more to the 3-yard stripe, leaving a yard for a first and ten or a touchdown. Young was tackled on the play and the ball rolled out over the sidelines. That started the squabble.

Referee Michie first carried the ball in 15 yards, placing it on the 2-foot line directly in front of the Bluff goal posts.

The Poplar Bluff captain, Coach Peters and timekeeper O'Neal raised objections, and sideline routers entered ready into the mix-up which finally ended with the Mules in possession of the ball on their own 20-yard line.

A Bluff rally was short-lived following the decision when Moll intercepted a pass on his own 27-yard stripe and ran back to the Mule's 43-yard line.

The quarter ended with the Bulldogs in possession of the ball on the Bluff 44-yard line.

An exchange of punts gave the ball to Sikeston on their own 45-yard line, where Moll took it down to the Bluff 41-yard stripe and a first down.

Garner went in for Wolpers for the one and only substitution of the game.

Caldwell ducked his head while his feet reeled off 11 yards, placing the ball on the Mule's 30-yard line. Moll pushed across for one yard, but a pass from Young was incomplete. Moll was shoved back for no gain, and Caldwell punted to Jett, who returned to his own 31-yard mark. He slipped thru for 2 yards on the next play. Then the big Sikeston push started with Moll intercepting a pass which bounced off the chest of a Bluff receiver on the Mules' 41-yard line.

Young faded back and kept fading until spectators thought sure the Bulldogs would be thrown for a loss, but the heave came, a long, beautiful high spiral which settled gracefully in the willing arms of Jackson, who speeded the remaining few yards for a touchdown, six big points. Jett missed the tackle by inches.

A few seconds later Sikeston kicked off, but the Bluff back, excited by the previous play, muffed the ball, which rolled to the 11-yard marker, where a pack of Bulldogs downed the receiver. Two passes in succession netted the visitors a 5-yard penalty, and the next try was intercepted by Moll on the Mule's 38-yard line. He ran 13 yards to the 25 when the timer's gun stopped the game.

APPLE TREE BEARS SECOND CROP OF YEAR

Mrs. Cora Sims of Juanita, while making a visit to her former home in Canolou recently, discovered that one of the apple trees on her property which had borne abundantly of the fruit earlier in the season, had begun to produce another crop of the fruit. Some of the second crop apples are as large as walnuts. According to the owner, the tree is loaded with them. A branch of this tree is now in The Standard office.

Make Breakfast Memorable

BREAKFAST in America is at best a monotonous meal. Housewives seem to spend the greater part of their energy in devising delicacies for lunch and dinner, and let breakfast pretty much take care of itself. This may be because the average American husband hurries through his breakfast to be off to business. But, with very little trouble and no loss of time, breakfast, too, can be made a memorable meal.

How To Do It

Hawaiian pineapple is the key to this proposition. This product is growing in popularity as a breakfast fruit because its acid turns alkaline inside your body, which is what all dietitians tell us that a breakfast fruit should do. Here are some ways to combine it with other popular breakfast fruits.

Iced Cantaloupe with Pineapple: Cut chilled melons in halves, and remove the seeds. Open a can of chilled crushed pineapple—or tidbits, if you prefer and heap the golden fruit into the melon cup. This combination is a treat that you'll remember for a long time.

Breakfast Grapefruit: Halve four grapefruit, remove seeds and center fibers and open the pulp. Put two tablespoons of crushed Hawaiian pineapple from an 8-ounce can in the center of each, sprinkle with confectioner's sugar and chill overnight in the refrigerator. In the morning serve this combination plain, or garnish with cherries, tiny grapes, mint leaves or anything desired. Serves eight.

Had Suffered 25 Long Years; Now Well And Happy

Complications Ended Like Magic; She Gains 13 Pounds.

Regardless of how long or how severely you've suffered with stomach trouble, indigestion, loss of appetite, weakness, sleeplessness, headaches, backaches and toxic pains, take hope—for Sargon is at hand with a record behind it that cannot be denied. Mrs. N. M. Laird, 488 Boulevard, S. E., Atlanta, says: "I'm amazed at the way Sargon overcame troubles I'd been suffering with 25 years. I had the most terrible attacks of indigestion imaginable. I had to have my stomach pumped out twice a week. Rheumatism developed in my knee joints and I just had to drag my foot along in walking. I lost weight and my nerves were in frightful condition. Since taking Sargon, eat anything I want and every sign of stomach trouble is gone. The rheumatic pains have disappeared, my nerves are normal and I've gained 13 pounds and am stronger and more alert than in years. I'm no constipated in the least since taking Sargon Pills."

HIGHWAY PATROL MAY BE EQUIPPED WITH RADIO BEFORE CLOSE OF YEAR

Jefferson City, October 19.—Before the close of the year the Missouri State Highway Patrol hopes to have in operation a system of radio communication with patrolmen in the field, it is announced in the quarterly report of the patrol, just issued.

Widely scattered as the troops are over the State communication is a problem of some consequence and the organization has felt the need of closer contact, particularly in emergencies. For several weeks a survey has been under way, to determine the possibilities of radio service. Tests of receiving equipment also have been in progress.

Under the law the State radio station, WOS, is placed at the disposal of the patrol, but the survey has revealed three major obstacles: The State station operates on a wave length within the broadcast band, while short wave transmission is best suited to police work; the low power of the station, 500 watts, prevents proper coverage of the entire State and the station does not have a full-time operating permit, but is limited to certain hours each day.

Several suggested solutions are being considered which, if practical, would give the patrol a radio service similar to that of police departments in the larger cities.

Patrol cars equipped with receiving sets would be able to pick up emergency bulletins and orders broadcast from the headquarters, greatly increasing the effectiveness of the organization.

It is contemplated that the State radio service, if put into use, would be available also to sheriffs, municipal police and other peace officers of the State. The State convention of sheriffs and police officers, held recently at Hannibal, adopted a resolution urging the inauguration of such a service.

What Is ATHLETE'S FOOT

Over 30 Million Americans Now Have It—Is This Dreaded Disease Becoming a Plague?

Athlete's Foot is a fungus germ (Tinea) which appears on the feet in the form of a little yellow blister, causing severe irritation and itching—especially between the toes. This disease is very contagious and is spreading with alarming rapidity among all classes of people.

The failure to successfully treat Athlete's Foot in the past has been due largely to the fact that these germs hibernates in the pores of the shoes. Salves and liquids applied only to the feet DO NOT PENETRATE THE PORES OF THE SHOES.

Medical Science has recently developed an amazing treatment known as Meritt Foot Powder, which laboratory and clinical tests have proved will positively kill these germs and restore feet so infected to a normal, healthy condition. It is simply sifted on the feet and into the shoes.

Meritt Foot Powder quickly eliminates excessive perspiration and itching of the toes. It heals irritation and is unsurpassed for chafing and as a deodorant. Why suffer another day when this fast working treatment is positively guaranteed to overcome these distressing conditions or your money refunded!

JUDGE PARK—AN ESTIMATE

By Dick Smith,
Managing Editor of the Journal-Post

The Journal-Post last Friday raised a point as to the availability of Judge Guy B. Park as Democratic gubernatorial candidate to succeed the late Francis M. Wilson.

In doing so this newspaper was actuated solely by the feeling that, though he was in no way to blame, responsibility for a race track and a gambling resort in Platte county would be laid at his door. His integrity and ability were not questioned.

Immediately after publication of the editorial expressing this view, mutual friends of Judge Park and the writer began ruing that a meeting with Judge Park would dispel any qualms the Journal-Post might have as to his ability to answer any such charges or as to his qualifications for the office of governor.

Such a meeting was held Tuesday.

The writer came away from the interview with the conviction that Judge Park is excellently fitted to serve as the chief executive of Missouri. Further, it would be a rank injustice to hold that he is disqualified for office because of conditions which he had done everything in his power to correct.

One cannot talk to Judge Park without being convinced of his sincerity when he says that he has no apologies to make.

And one cannot spend any considerable time in conversation with him and fail to believe that when he says that he has made no promises and will be too busy until after the election to make any, he speaks from the record.

Judge Park feels that he owes his nomination to friends in Platte County who injected his name into the discussion after the death of Francis Wilson—friends who also were friends of Senator Wilson and who believed that Judge Park was qualified to carry on the policies that would have guided Senator Wilson if he had lived.

This does not mean that Judge Park does not appreciate the fight that was made for him after opposition arose—he would be less than human if he did not—but, if the writer knows men, Judge Park will never stultify himself by putting political obligations ahead of his obligations to the public.

Judge Park will grow on the voters as the campaign progresses and will continue to grow on them after he becomes governor if he is elected.

FACTS AND FIGURES

Campbell, Mo., October 14.—Southeast Missouri has seldom been treated to such a galaxy of pertinent facts and forceful presentation as has been received in the district during the past few days at the hands of Senator Roy McKittick and Richard R. Nacy, candidates on the Democratic ticket for Attorney General and State Treasurer, respectively.

Tremendous gatherings have heard the address of this pair of stalwart campaigners as they have gone from county to county, town to town, making as many as three addresses each in a single day.

Yet more significant in the campaign sense is the fact that for the most part their itinerary has been so arranged that they are following in the wake of Lieut. Gov. Winter, candidate for the Republican governorship of Missouri. This seasoned veteran has been raising some smoke screen with his cry of "honest elections" and "down with the Pendergast machine". It is perhaps a bit beneficial to the Jefferson City Republican editor that the eloquent McKittick has undertaken the task of explaining some things about which Winter had remained silent. Blood was apparently drawn in Madison County where the remarks of McKittick evoked the sweeping denial of the Lieut. Governor, but like the proverbial "from frying pan to fire" ordeal, placed him in a much more embarrassing position than the one from which the accusations of McKittick drove him.

When the fiery McKittick accused Winter of violation of the Anti-Nepotism law by having a son and a daughter on the State payroll, the latter as a clerk in the State Capitol, Winter denounced the statement as a complete falsehood. He explained that his daughter was not a regular employee, but was attending school in Jefferson City and merely working a few hours each day after school. Search of the records revealed the truth of this statement and the acrimonious Senator McKittick, who has been dubbed "a forty-year-old edition of Jim Reed", immediately made known the fact that the girl was drawing $3.50 per day for type work, a sum equal to that allowed to the full-time clerks of the General Assembly, and by the statement of Gov. Winter, himself, this amount was for only a few hours each week, the few hours that could be spared after school which closed at four o'clock each day. To the answer of McKittick, who had apparently proved a Tarter in the hands of the gubernatorial aspirant, the latter has thus far made no definite response.

Not satisfied with the denouncement of Winter, McKittick and Nacy, vigorously condemning the entire State personnel of the past four years, have revealed some startling information along the same lines concerning the activities of State Auditor, L. D. Thompson, Republican candidate for Secretary of State. McKittick charges that according to the figures of Mr. Findley, defeated primary candidate for the place won by Thompson, the Auditor has employed at the present time on the State payroll a total of nine immediate members of his family, all in direct violation of the spirit of the Anti-Nepotism law.

The records, say McKittick and Nacy, as prepared by Mr. Findley, show a total of $170,757.95 that has been paid the Thompson family since 1921 up to July 1, 1932. This amount will reach $183,267.95 by the end of the present year. During 1921, the first year of the Thompson occupancy, the family received only $6,254.54 while the year 1932 will increase this amount to approximately $25,000.

"This represents an increase of more than 400 per cent," says Sen. McKittick in his addresses, "in the amount being paid the Thompson family by the State of Missouri. This increase has come while thousands have been unemployed, roaming the streets and roads in search of the privilege of earning a living while the Thompsons have grown fat on the tax paid money of Missouri citizens. And not satisfied with this stupendous amount, he is asking for another four years at a yet more lucrative place, where the appointive power will be yet broader and where it will be possible for yet more members of the Thompsons that may reach mature ages to get their names on the State payroll."

The list prepared by Mr. Findley in the Primary shows among the Thompsons on the payroll two sisters-in-law, one brother, a daughter, a nephew, one brother-in-law, a cousin, a son and a daughter-in-law.

Nacy, answering the argument concerning the Kansas City increased registration recently, claims that it is only slightly more than the increase in St. Louis and other centers of population. It is a mere swing to the Democratic ranks, explains Nacy, that is a natural course of events following the exposure of the Republican machine in Kansas City where 17,000 Democrats were challenged and refused the right to vote in 1930 with entire precincts refused the right to vote in 1930 with entire precincts refused entrance into the polls in a wholesale manner.

This paid of intrip campaigners, not in the slightest fear of reprisal, even introduced records to the route located south of the recommended location. This group would have route SN follow the south survey beginning at a point on Highway 61 known as the Mattheus lane running due east to the southeast corner of section 32, and then north to connect with Highway No. 105 leading to East Prairie. They contend that their location is now the most traveled road of the two locations, and further, that the south route would connect with the county Highway from U. S. Highway 61, due east through Matthews to Canolou as a practically straight road east and west across New Madrid County. They point out that it would also connect up with the farm-to-market road to be built north and south from Morehouse to a point near Lilbourn.

ENGINEERS RECOMMEND NORTH LOCATION OF ROUTE SN NEW MADRID

The Missouri State Highway Commission, Jefferson City, will conduct a hearing about November 4 to hear committees for and against a proposed location of farm-to-market road SN in New Madrid County. In non-technical language, the proposed road will be located on one of two preliminary surveys known as the north and the south locations.

Recommendations of the State Highway Department Division 10 office placed the point of beginning at a point on U. S. Highway 61, approximately six miles south of Sikeston; then east for four and three-quarter miles along what is known as Champion lane; a jog south about one-half mile and then east to the Mississippi County line to the end of the present concrete Highway No. 105, which runs east to the city of East Prairie. This highway is a part of the Secondary road system of the State.

Objections have been heard in New Madrid by citizens from Canolou, Matthews, New Madrid, Barnes Ridge, and from a few East Prairie citizens who would have the route located south of the recommended location. This group would have route SN follow the south survey beginning at a point on Highway 61 known as the Mattheus lane running due east to the southeast corner of section 32, and then north to connect with Highway No. 105 leading to East Prairie. They contend that their location is now the most traveled road of the two locations, and further, that the south route would connect with the county Highway from U. S. Highway 61, due east through Matthews to Canolou as a practically straight road east and west across New Madrid County. They point out that it would also connect up with the farm-to-market road to be built north and south from Morehouse to a point near Lilbourn.

Inquiries at the Highway Division 10 office here recently relative to the two locations revealed that the north location was recommended wholly upon engineering facts and data. Both routes are subject to overflow in extremely high water, but careful surveys show without question of doubt that the north route has certain advantages over the south location from the standpoint of overflow.

The question of cost also enters into the calculation of the engineers who have determined that additional bridge and trestle work would run the cost up approximately one-third. In the October 14 issue of the New Madrid Record, the front-page story under a headline "Will File Protest", leads one to believe that route SN would be projected west of Highway 61 when, as a matter of fact, route SN as now proposed, lies entirely east of Highway 61, and its location on the north or south surveys will not effect its future location west of the Highway. Highway Division 10 engineers give their definite assurance to the citizens of Matthews and others affected west of Highway 61 that their road will not be altered except to widen the roadway and improve the type of construction. In other words, Matthews, Canolou, Marston and points west of the Highway will not be affected adversely by the location of Route SN east to No. 105 even though it be placed on the north route which carries with it certain topographical, engineering, and economic advantages.

The Missouri State Highway program will deal separately with the road west of Highway 61, and it is a foregone conclusion that the route west of the Highway will connect with the north and south road from Morehouse to a point near Lilbourn.

The New Madrid Record failed to state this fact, although it is the most pertinent underlying cause of the objections to the north route—they fear that New Madrid will lose trade if the road is located a mile north of the south survey, when, as a matter of fact, eighty-five per cent of the trade on the north and south routes now goes to East Prairie. It is reasonable to suppose that trade now patronizing East Prairie, while using a country road, will not change life-long habits in order to trade in New Madrid, Matthews or Sikeston when and if the State builds a high-type, all-weather, gravel highway over either location to connect with a concrete road into their old trading place.

The Department of Agriculture at Washington, D. C., Monday forecast a production of 2,844,682,000 bushels of corn and a preliminary estimation of 711,707,000 bushels of wheat from 1932 crops.

A Lecture On Christian Science

Christian Science: What It Is and How It Works.

By Peter V. Ross, C. S. B., of San Francisco, member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, at Plaza Theater, Kansas City, Mo. Mr. Ross spoke in part as follows:

Not long ago, after delivering a lecture somewhat like this one, I stood watching the people leave the auditorium. Presently a woman in middle life came along. She was rather more than walking. She was so full of vigor that she was striding. As she passed me she said, "This is the first time I have walked out of the church." She had been helped into the place, she had been helped out of it, I do not know how many times, but on this occasion she walked out on her own power.

What had happened? Some of the fear which had been bearing her down into helplessness had been lifted and dissipated. Her thought had been clarified and uplifted. All a result of the truth she had heard. And with the transforming of her mind came the renewing of her body. For the human body is what the human mind makes it. When the human mind is depressed or confused with fear, it can scarcely be expected to construct a normal body. But when this mind is clear, buoyant, and confident, it constructs a better, a healthier, a stronger body. You may recall the words of Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, in this connection. She says: "Consciousness constructs a better body when faith in matter has been conquered. Correct material belief by spiritual understanding, and Spirit will form you anew" (Science and Health, page 425).

Take the time occasionally to reason along these lines: That God, instead of being a kinglike being off in the clouds somewhere, is Mind and Life. That He is here and now. Invisibly here it is true; he makes Himself visible or manifest through spiritual man, establishing divine intelligence and irrefragable life in each individual, for man is consciousness rather than corporeality, existing in Mind not matter, out of reach of the perils of mortal existence. As you work out this dynamic proposition and grasp its significance you will gradually find yourself lifted out of the realm of disease and danger into the upper realm of health and safety, because of your enlarged understanding of the Christ.

When you gain the true concept that God is Mind and Life, you see how it is that you are always in His presence. You are always in the presence of intelligence, are you not? So near is it that it is your life. You cannot get anything between you and your intelligence? Whence comes this intelligence? So far as it is sound and true it is the divine Mind asserting itself through you. God is nearer, if could be, than your thoughts. Your true self is at-one with Him; His intelligence is your intelligence and His life is your life, for there is only one Life! How then can your life be corrupted with disease? How can your intelligence be so confused as to believe in disease or evil? How can your well-being or existence be put in jeopardy? It cannot if you understand the truth of being.

BEST PLANTED IN THE FALL

Peonies are such hardy, thrifty perennials that they just grow and grow, and soon become firmly established. We are apt to overlook the fact, however, that new and improved varieties are constantly making their appearance. Some time it is well to dislodge the old varieties we get so used to seeing and substitute in their places some of the more recent introductions. These newer, finer sorts are sure to delight you with their improved qualities, and it will be interesting to plan a different arrangement of the Peony planting.

The American Peony Society publishes an authoritative manual in which about 300 selected varieties are carefully described. It is interesting to note that in this manual are listed the names of hundreds of other Peonies which the Society recommends to be discarded, not because the flowers are unworthy, but because the selected list contains newer types of similar appearance which are much more desirable.

An ideal background against which a Peony may display its magnificent flowers is a group of shrubs. Take care that sufficient space is allowed for the Peonies as their roots forage deep.

Peonies are such delightful flowers that it is difficult for one not to become an enthusiast to the point of growing dozens of varieties. If Peonies become one's hobby arrange the plants so they are displayed to best advantage. Create a special garden for them, and interplant some Delphiniums, hard Phloxes, Asters and perhaps Chrysanthemums, to provide interest when the Peonies are out of flower.

How to Plant Peonies
The ground should be deeply prepared and well fertilized. Be sure, though, that it contains no fresh manure, for if the roots come in contact with fresh manure, the plant will become sick and fail to bloom. Prepare the ground well in advance of planting, and make a thorough job of it for Peonies like plenty of rich soil. Allow about three feet of open ground to each plant and see that they get an abundance of sunshine.

The first season they should be protected a little from freezing in order to prevent their being heaved out of the ground. Afterward they are better off without litter or any covering which might harbor disease.

In planting Peonies do not bury them too deep. The eyes should be just under the surface when the soil has thoroughly settled. In newly made beds they should be set about two inches deep to allow for subsequent settling.

Peonies are reliable plants. They are remarkably free from insect or fungus troubles and you need rarely spray them. Just keep them well cultivated and fertilized with bone meal each year and they will then delight you with their constant improvement and flowers of unrivaled beauty.

Mrs. James Kevil was hostess to the Thursday Bridge Club.

THE EDITOR SAYS—

Brother Jack Johnson, a pure pillar of the local Baptist church and a bitter Republican partisan, delivered a talk to Oran voters a few nights ago and gave them to understand that Joe Anderson, Democratic candidate for Sheriff, was a very vile man, without moral character whatever, and if elected would permit a joint of some sort to be operated at every corner, or words to that effect. It was one of these character assassination whispering campaigns that Holy Jack confessed to Joe Anderson in the presence of another that he didn't know what he was talking about, that So-and-So had said that the other fellow had said that and so was true and that Jack believed Joe would permit these terrible things to exist, if elected, though he knew nothing about what he was talking about when he let on to the Oran voters at Oran that he did. Another Christian idol gone to hell!

Dutch Van Horne attended the first training camp for officers for the World's War at Ft. Riley, Kas. at $100 per month, but like many others, failed to get a commission. He passed a rigid examination at the time for entrance and failed to say anything about a broken leg bone until he was called on for a high private in the rear ranks at $30 per month then discovered he was unfit for service.

It was said that when an effort was being made to get a gentleman from Illinois to run on the Republican ticket for sheriff, he was assured that $3000 in cash would be forthcoming to elect him, he declined, but we suppose this $3,000 was made available to the drafted candidate for this office to be used in his campaign and it looks like some alleged Democrats were getting their part of this money while the getting is good. —Illmo Jimplieute.

The Standard editor is against Frank W. Van Horne for sheriff strictly because he is not on the Democratic ticket. He is no angel, neither are we, but we are for the nominees of our party first. Frank never made a pronounced success as a school teacher and as a farmer hasn't set the world afire to date. Just why he will make a better sheriff than anybody else is the bunk.

We wonder how Dutch Van Horne got hold of the copy of The Standard that he carried with him and read from in his campaign, as he is not a subscriber. However, we thank him for the publicity and if he will call at the office will furnish him with other copies.

The next time that Editor Chilton of Caruthersville and Editor Blanton of Sikeston go out on a lark and get their cars mixed up we would advise them not to give the incident too much publicity. The story of someone stealing a car from an editor in one town and leaving it at the door of an editor in another town sounds just a bit fishy.—Jackson Cash Book.

The County Court in session last Thursday afternoon awarded the printing of the general election ballots to the Illmo Jimplieute at $30 per thousand, plus 50 cents for each change in township offices, plus assenting in voting precincts and delivering. The Sikeston Standard will do the work. This is the very same identical figure as charged by The Standard for the printing complete as specified by law and as ordered by the Clerk of the County Court and delivered in Benton, that Candidate Van Horne is charging was out of line and unreasonable. Readers of The Standard who hear Candidate Van Horne charge The Standard with being out of line, will bear in mind that if he is honest in one instance he must be dishonest in the other.

The Soviet Russian Government is interested in growing the delicious, yellow papaw found in such abundance in the Wabash Valley of the United States. Dr. Albert Reiff Bechtel, head of Wabash College department of botany, has received a request from Lenin Academy of Science at Leningrad for a quantity of papaw seed. We are in favor of sending them plenty. Don't know anything worse grown in the United States than this fruit unless it is the wild May apple.

Politics make strange bed fellows and that is the reason we voted against giving women the right to vote!

AUTOMOBILE WRECKS MAR ACTIVE BUSINESS WEEK-END

Sikeston merchants reported one of the busiest trade days for several months Saturday, but the rush of buyers was accompanied by a greater than average number of automobile wrecks.

Lloyd "Bill" Cook, driving from East Prairie to his home near Klein's Island, wrapped his Model T Ford pickup truck around bridge railing at the second ditch west of Sikeston about 6:45 Saturday evening. The machine splintered 4-inch pipe forming uprights on the bridge railing, then careened across the highway, striking the opposite side of the bridge, and finally came to a halt on the right hand bridge rail, which also was torn up.

Cook, slightly under the influence of intoxicants, was patched up by Dr. T. C. McClure, who found numerous scratches about his head, and left hand. A passenger, a lad 14 to 16 years old, was slightly hurt, but declined medical attention.

Sensenbaugh's carried the remains of the flier to their garage here.

MODEL T CLASHES WITH A FORD SUNDAY

A Model T Ford, pickup body, belonging to the Kindred boys called heads Sunday evening about 7 o'clock by a Model A flier driven by G. W. Zacher, Jr., on Kingshighway just south of the intersection with College Avenue. Both machines were wrecked, although occupants escaped with minor injuries.

The Zacher car had just been repaired following an accident two weeks ago in which Mr. Zacher and Lon Swanner figures near Osceola, Ark. The young man had permission to use the automobile Sunday night in order to go to League, and was on his way to pick up Sam Bowman when the crash caused changed plans. Zacher swerved around the Woods Dairy delivery truck, also northbound on Kingshighway, and collided headon with the Kindred machine, which happened to have only one dim headlight.

BAILEY RETURNS FROM JEFF CITY FACT FINDING TOUR

Attorney Bailey stated Monday that he would not be ready to show his hand just yet, but promised that application for a hearing would be filed in the near future. The Missouri Supreme Court recently denied a Quo Warrant suit filed by the City, and placed the final decision of the ouster matter with the Commission.

CLOTHING THIEVES BUSY FRIDAY NIGHT DURING FOOTBALL GAME

While hundreds of Sikestonians were cheering their football boys to a non-conference victory over the Poplar Bluff Mules Friday night, sneak thieves entered two homes and made their get-away with dresses, suits and jewelry.

The Harry Smith home on Kingshighway was entered while the family was out. Here the prowlers selected five dresses belonging to Mrs. Louis Emory Baker, a winter coat, the property of Mrs. Smith and the latter's diamond wedding ring.

A similar visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arden Ellise on North Ranney street netted a suit and football sweater which formerly belonged to Cletus Bidwell, high school faculty member who rooms at the house.

Later it was discovered that a fine watch of Mr. Ellise's and a revolver had been taken. Entrance was gained by slitting a back window screen.

SAND TRUCK AND RENT-A-CAR MIX

A Chrysler "50" operated by Powers & Littleton's Drive-It-Yourself Company was wrecked Saturday evening about 5:45 o'clock when the machine driven by Lee Oliver crashed into a heavily loaded sand truck on Highway 60 near Trousdale's Garage. Henry Bolden, owner of the truck, stated that he had a load of about 7000 pounds of sand.

Wallace Atmip, passenger in the Chrysler, suffered a broken nose, a horseshoe-shaped cut on his left cheek, and other minor injuries. The driver, Lee Oliver, was not seriously hurt.

The impact of the collision mashed in the radiator of the Chrysler, and shoved the engine backwards under the dash. The left front end of Bolden's truck was also damaged.

Trouble piled up for Powers & Littleton when a group of negroes, who had rented the Graham-Page sedan, anticipated a corner on Highway 60 near Bertrand, turned and found a tree staring them in the face. The corner did not exist. Powers & Littleton had rented the car to Thomas Anderson, who loaded a group of his friends into the machine and was returning from Charleston when the wreck happened about 2 a. m. Sunday. The machine was damaged to the extent of about $200. It was towed to Sensenbaugh's and placed in a stall adjoining the wrecked Chrysler.

COTTON SEED TRUCK DRIVER TAKES DITCH TO AVOID WRECK

The driver of a Richardson-DeLisle-Pinkney cotton seed truck chose the shoulder and ditch of the highway 7 miles south of Sikeston Sunday about 5 o'clock, in preference to striking a carload of women and children. The truck coasted over into loose gravel near a culvert, and toppled over into the ditch, tearing up the truck bed. A passenger on top of the cotton seed truck suffered a broken arm.

POPULAR BLUFF SELECTED FOR NEXT MEETING OF FEDERATED WOMEN'S CLUBS

Features of the two-day conference were tree planting exercises, a display of objects of art, paintings, antiques, and handwork, and the usual interesting reports of club accomplishments.

Mrs. David S. Long, Missouri State President and several members of the State Board were present.

FIRST FOOTBALL COACH PAYS FINE TRIBUTE TO PRESENT BULLDOG TEAM

R. E. Bailey organized Sikeston's first football team way back in 1906. Since that time he has followed Bulldog teams about as closely as anyone in Sikeston, and for that reason, also, he is a kindly critic whose opinion should carry weight. In his own words, the 1932 football machine, built around unpromising material at the beginning of the season, has developed into a team which compares favorably with any team developed in the 26-year history of the game here.

"There have been heavier teams here," is told a Standard representative, "but never one with more punch, and with more coordinated action than Coach Mahew's outfit."

Sikeston's Republican Editor Clint H. Denman Pleads With Voters to Elect Anderson Sheriff

Sikeston's dyed-in-the-wool Republican newspaper editor, Clint H. Denman, published an eloquent editorial in his issue of the Sikeston Herald dated October 20 over the caption "Remember Madison County".

In fact, we think so much of the article that we are re-printing it in full.

Here it is: "When folks cast their vote for sheriff next month, they can well afford to remember what a bad sheriff meant to Madison County. In the Madison County seat, it will be recalled, each of the two banks of the town was recently robbed. The sheriff is charged with assisting in the robbing of one bank and it is rumored that he may have assisted in robbing the other. The office of sheriff of a county is too important for anybody but the best men to fill".

Clint, that is one of the nicest editorials you ever wrote. You omitted only one minor detail. It is a mere trifle, but we merely recall that C. O. Simmons of Madison County was elected on the REPUBLICAN (can-do-no-wrong) ticket. Just an oversight we feel sure.

Again, we are tempted to laud and magnify your statement to the effect that the office of sheriff is too important for anybody but the best men to fill. Right! And for that reason (keeping always before us your warning regarding the record of a Republican sheriff in Madison County) we anticipate that the Democracy of Scott County will have all the more reason to go down the line for Joe Anderson, Democratic candidate for sheriff.

You see, Clint, you've been in this political game about as long as the next one, and we know that you know if C. O. Simmons' name appeared on the ballot as a Republican, you'd vote for C. O. Simmons. We realize that you might squirm a bit, and bark to the party bosses, but when the time came to spread ink, or to mark that ballot, C. O. Simmons' name would be preceded by the prettiest "X" that ever a straight-laced G. O. P. produced. And white-wash. Say, if that jailbird happened to be on your ticket, two weeks of Republican propaganda would wash his dirty linen as clean as that of your famous Bishop, Teapot Dome Harding, or Prosperity-will-remain Coolidge.

Yes sir, Clint, we are surprised at this display of intestinal stamina on your part. We had sort of overlooked the fine record of your brother-in-party Simmons up there in your part of the country, but believe you me, by the time the boys down here compare a few records, Joe will find a lot of strays right there in the pack where they belong in the first place.

And by the way on whose ticket is Frank running?

The measure of the man, in your estimation and that of your associates, is his Republicanism—not his character. But we are straying from the point. The office of sheriff IS too important for anybody but the "best man"—which is reason enough for any Democrat in Scott County to entrust the office to Joe Anderson.

And Clint, just as an after thought. Remember the name of Walter P. Robertson, another REPUBLICAN sheriff, who got into some sort of a brawl over liquor in Pemiscot County? We sort of remember the name Robertson and in our sketchy, hazy manner recall liquor ring, Federal indictment, a trial in Cape Girardeau and other such minor details. You might look that up, also.

You see, Clint, we also, are interested in seeing a good man in the important office of sheriff of Scott County. Now don't go associating Frank's name with such men as Simmons and Robertson. We know that he is not in the same class, but as a matter of record the only Missouri sheriffs who have a record happen to be members of your party, and of the party which adopted Frank.

Chances are Frank has not been away from his first political love long enough to absorb the taint which has been reflected upon the Party by Simmons and Robertson, but we believe we're going to go down the line for Joe just to be on the safe side.

Soon as this preliminary skirmish is out of the way, we'll roll out the heavy guns on behalf of Joe. We'll let you know in time to get in on the fireworks.

In the meantime, thanks again on behalf of the Democratic County Committee for the splendid editorial last Thursday on behalf of Anderson.

P. S.: In case you wish to follow your own advice and elect a good sheriff, have Frank haul his charts around some afternoon and explain how you can vote for Joe, and still count one more for Mr. Hoovah.

It couldn't be done but Coach Mahew's crippled Bulldogs turned the trick neatly and with dispatch last Friday night when they met and defeated the visiting Poplar Bluff Mules by a score of 6 to 0.

The push came in the final quarter when Young heaved an exceptionally long pass to Bob Jackson for 36 yards. Jackson raced five yards with Jett, fleet Mule back, missing the tackle by inches at the goal line. Moll on the previous play donated on the pigskin to the boys when he intercepted a pass which bounced out of the arms of a Bluffian on the visitor's 41-yard line. The kick for extra point was wild, but that six-point lead was sufficient.

The Mules came over top heavy favorites, having, according to scribes and sports dopsters on their own newspapers, at least a 30-point advantage, and for a reason. The Mules had won in four starts, defeating Jackson 6-0, and Caruthersville, Doniphan and Puxico by larger scores. Two of their wins this season were against Little Six Conference foes, and two against non-conference teams.

Two things were outstanding in the game, one was the remarkably successful passing attack unopposed by the Bulldogs, and the other was the even more surprising defensive work of the Sikeston line. Time and again Jett, Reed, White and Hanna hammered and pounded at the forward wall, but the Sikestonians absorbed the shocks and allowed only slight gains, or broke through and smeared the Bluff ball luggers for healthy losses.

No better indication of good defensive work can be found than the fact that Jett, Mule quarterback, was forced to send Townley back to punt out of danger twelve times, while the Bulldogs called on Caldwell's toe nine times during the contest.

Mules Threaten First

The Mules started with a rush that carried the ball down the field to the Sikeston 14-yard marker, but there the attack fizzled out and the Bulldogs took possession and punted out of danger. Two stabs at the Sikeston line netted the Mules only four yards, then Moll intercepted a pass on his own 25-yard line and the Bulldogs started their drive to the Bluff 10-yard line to raise Sikeston hopes to fever pitch. Moll hit the line for 3 yards. Sikeston opened up its surprise air attack with a pass from Young to Moll for 8 yards. Bluff was offside, but the Bulldogs accepted the gain instead of the penalty. Young gained a yard on a reverse, and then flipped to Jones for fifteen yards. Moll made no gain, but Bluff was penalized 15 yards for holding, and the Bulldogs march was temporarily slowed up with a 3-yard loss when Moll was piled behind the line. Caldwell made good two yards on the next play, which was followed by a 29-yard heave Young to Jackson, placing the ball on the Bluff 10-yard line.

Moll bucked the line twice for short gains, two Sikeston passes were incomplete and the Mules took the ball on their own 14-yard line on downs.

A fifteen-yard Sikeston penalty and an exchange of punts placed the ball on the Bluff 42-yard line as the quarter ended with the Mules in possession of the ball.

The two teams played on fairly even terms during the second quarter. Each side had a punt blocked, but neither team could muster sufficient punch to take advantage of the break. The locals played defensive ball during most of the quarter netting only 11 yards from scrimmage to 27 for the visitors. The Mules earned two first downs during the frame, leaving the Sikeston score sheet blank, gaining one of their first and tens by an end run by Jett, and another by a pass good for 27 yards. The quarter ended with the Bulldogs in possession of the ball on their own 18-yard line.

Official Squabble Mars Third

A Sikeston threat in the third quarter stopped on the Bluff 2-foot line when everyone connected with the game milled about in an attempt to settle an unusual situation for nearly fifteen minutes.

Young had recovered the kickoff, which Robertson fumbled, giving the ball to Sikeston on the Bluff 34-marker on the first play of the quarter. Moll hit for three, and Young reeled off ten more for a first down on the Bluff 22-yard line. Moll hit left tackle for two yards, and Young added another at center. Moll lost 2 at right end, and an incomplete pass gave the ball to the Mules on their own 22-yard mark.

Jett and Hanna were unable to dent the Sikeston line for more than a yard on two attempts, and Hanna punted 32 yards to the Sikeston 45-yard line. Young returned to his own 45-yard line. Two Sikeston line plays netted 6 yards, a pass failed, and Caldwell punted on the Bluff 5-yard line.

Townley's had kick rolled out of bounds on the 12-yard line, and the Bulldogs accepted a made-to-order opportunity to score.

Moll gained 2 yards and plunged through again to the 5-yard marker. He stabbed once more to the 3-yard stripe, leaving a yard for a first and ten or a touchdown. Young was tackled on the play and the ball rolled out over the sidelines. That started the squabble.

Referee Michie first carried the ball in 15 yards, placing it on the 2-foot line directly in front of the Bluff goal posts.

The Poplar Bluff captain, Coach Peters and timekeeper O'Neal raised objections, and sideline rooters entered readily into the mix-up which finally ended with the Mules in possession of the ball on their own 20-yard line.

A Bluff rally was short-lived following the decision when Moll intercepted a pass on his own 27-yard stripe and ran back to the Mule's 43-yard line.

The quarter ended with the Bulldogs in possession of the ball on the Bluff 44-yard line.

An exchange of punts gave the ball to Sikeston on their own 45-yard line, where Moll took it down to the Bluff 41-yard stripe and a first down.

Garner went in for Wolpers for the one and only substitution of the game.

Caldwell ducked his head while his feet reeled off 11 yards, placing the ball on the Mule's 30-yard line. Moll pushed across for one yard, but a pass from Young was incomplete. Moll was shoved back for no gain, and Caldwell punted to Jett, who returned to his own 31-yard mark. He slipped thru for 2 yards on the next play. Then the big Sikeston push started with Moll intercepting a pass which bounced off the chest of a Bluff receiver on the Mules' 41-yard line.

Young faded back and kept fading until spectators thought sure the Bulldogs would be thrown for a loss, but the heave came, a long, beautiful high spiral which settled gracefully in the willing arms of Jackson, who speeded the remaining few yards for a touchdown, six big points. Jett missed the tackle by inches.

A few seconds later Sikeston kicked off, but the Bluff back, excited by the previous play, muffed the ball, which rolled to the 11-yard marker, where a pack of Bulldogs downed the receiver. Two passes in succession netted the visitors a 5-yard penalty, and the next try was intercepted by Moll on the Mule's 38-yard line. He ran 13 yards to the 25 when the timer's gun stopped the game.

The lineup:

Make Breakfast Memorable

BREAKFAST in America is at best a monotonous meal. Housewives seem to spend the greater part of their energy in devising delicacies for lunch and dinner, and let breakfast pretty much take care of itself. This may be because the average American husband hurries through his breakfast to be off to business. But, with very little trouble and no loss of time, breakfast, too, can be made a memorable meal.

How To Do It

Hawaiian pineapple is the key to this proposition. This product is growing in popularity as a breakfast fruit because its acid turns alkaline inside your body, which is what all dietitians tell us that a breakfast fruit should do. Here are some ways to combine it with other popular breakfast fruits.

Iced Cantaloupe with Pineapple: Cut chilled melons in halves, and remove the seeds. Open a can of chilled crushed pineapple—or tidbits, if you prefer and heap the golden fruit into the melon cup. This combination is a treat that you'll remember for a long time.

Breakfast Grapefruit: Halve four grapefruit, remove seeds and center fibers and open the pulp. Put two tablespoons of crushed Hawaiian pineapple from an 8-ounce can in the center of each, sprinkle with confectioner's sugar and chill overnight in the refrigerator. In the morning serve this combination plain, or garnish with cherries, tiny grapes, mint leaves or anything desired. Serves eight.

HIGHWAY PATROL MAY BE EQUIPPED WITH RADIO BEFORE CLOSE OF YEAR

Jefferson City, October 19.—Before the close of the year the Missouri State Highway Patrol hopes to have in operation a system of radio communication with patrolmen in the field, it is announced in the quarterly report of the patrol, just issued.

Widely scattered as the troopers are over the State communication is a problem of some consequence and the organization has felt the need of closer contact, particularly in emergencies. For several weeks a survey has been under way, to determine the possibilities of radio service. Tests of receiving equipment also have been in progress.

Under the law the State radio station, WOS, is placed at the disposal of the patrol, but the survey has revealed three major obstacles: The State station operates on a wave length within the broadcast band, while short wave transmission is best suited to police work; the low power of the station, 500 watts, prevents proper coverage of the entire State and the station does not have a full-time operating permit, but is limited to certain hours each day.

Several suggested solutions are being considered which, if practical, would give the patrol a radio service similar to that of police departments in the larger cities.

Patrol cars equipped with receiving sets would be able to pick up emergency bulletins and orders broadcast from the headquarters, greatly increasing the effectiveness of the organization.

It is contemplated that the State radio service, if put into use, would be available also to sheriffs, municipal police and other peace officers of the State. The State convention of sheriffs and police officers, held recently at Hannibal, adopted a resolution urging the inauguration of such a service.

What Is ATHLETE'S FOOT

Over 30 Million Americans Now Have It—Is This Dreaded Disease Becoming a Plague?

Athlete's Foot is a fungus germ (Tinea) which appears on the feet in the form of a little yellow blister, causing severe irritation and itching—especially between the toes. This disease is very contagious and is spreading with alarming rapidity among all classes of people.

The failure to successfully treat Athlete's Foot in the past has been due largely to the fact that these germs hibernate in the pores of the shoes. Salves and liquids applied only to the feet DO NOT PENETRATE THE PORES OF THE SHOES.

Medical Science has recently developed an amazing treatment known as Meritt Foot Powder, which laboratory and clinical tests have proved will positively kill these germs and restore feet so infected to a normal, healthy condition. It is simply sifted on the feet and into the shoes.

Meritt Foot Powder quickly eliminates excessive perspiration and healing of the toes. It heals irritation and is unsurpassed for chafing and as a deodorant. that cannot be denied. Mrs. N. M. Laird, 488 Boulevard, S. E., Atlanta, says: "I'm amazed at the way Sargon overcame troubles I'd been suffering with 25 years. I had the most terrible attacks of indigestion imaginable. I had to have my stomach pumped out twice a week. Rheumatism developed in my knee joints and I just had to drag my foot along in walking. I lost weight and my nerves were in frightful condition. Since taking Sargon, eat anything I want and every sign of stomach trouble is gone. The rheumatic pains have disappeared, my nerves are normal and I've gained 13 pounds and am stronger and more alert than in years. I'm no constipated in the least since taking Sargon Pills."

JUDGE PARK—AN ESTIMATE

By Dick Smith, Managing Editor of the Journal-Post

The Journal-Post last Friday raised a point as to the availability of Judge Guy B. Park as Democratic gubernatorial candidate to succeed the late Francis M. Wilson.

In doing so this newspaper was actuated solely by the feeling that though he was in no way to blame, responsibility for a race track and a gambling resort in Platte county would be laid at his door. His integrity and ability were not questioned.

Immediately after publication of the editorial expressing this view, mutual friends of Judge Park and the writer began ruing that a meeting with Judge Park would dispel any qualms the Journal-Post might have as to his ability to answer any such charges or as to his qualifications for the office of governor.

Such a meeting was held Tuesday.

The writer came away from the interview with the conviction that Judge Park is excellently fitted to serve as the chief executive of Missouri. Further, it would be a rank injustice to hold that he is disqualified for office because of conditions which he had done everything in his power to correct.

One cannot talk to Judge Park without being convinced of his sincerity when he says that he has no apologies to make.

And one cannot spend any considerable time in conversation with him and fail to believe that when he says that he has made no promises and will be too busy until after the election to make any, he speaks from the record.

Judge Park feels that he owes his nomination to friends in Platte County who injected his name into the discussion after the death of Francis Wilson—friends who also were friends of Senator Wilson and who believed that Judge Park was qualified to carry on the policies that would have guided Senator Wilson if he had lived.

This does not mean that Judge Park does not appreciate the fight that was made for him after opposition arose—he would be less than human if he did not—but, if the writer knows men, Judge Park will never stultify himself by putting political obligations ahead of his obligations to the public.

Judge Park will grow on the voters as the campaign progresses and will continue to grow on them after he becomes governor if he is elected.

FACTS AND FIGURES

Campbell, Mo., October 14.—Southeast Missouri has seldom been treated to such a galaxy of pertinent facts and forceful presentation as has been received in the district during the past few days at the hands of Senator Roy McKittick and Richard R. Nacy, candidates on the Democratic ticket for Attorney General and State Treasurer, respectively.

Tremendous gatherings have heard the address of this pair of stalwart campaigners as they have gone from county to county, town to town, making as many as three addresses each in a single day.

Yet more significant in the campaign sense is the fact that for the most part their itinerary has been so arranged that they are following in the wake of Lieut. Gov. Winter, candidate for the Republican governorship of Missouri. This seasoned smoke screen with his cry of "honest elections" and "down with the Pendergast machine". It is perhaps a bit painful to the Jefferson City Republican editor that the eloquent McKittick has undertaken the task of explaining some things about which Winter had remained silent. Blood was apparently drawn in Madison County where the remarks of McKittick evoked the sweeping denial of the Lieut. Governor, but like the proverbial "from frying pan to fire" ordeal, placed him in a much more embarrassing position than the one from which the accusations of McKittick drove him.

When the fiery McKittick accused Winter of violation of the Anti-Nepotism law by having a son and a daughter on the State payroll, the latter as a clerk in the State Capitol, Winter denounced the statement as a complete falsehood. He explained that his daughter was not a regular employee, but was attending school in Jefferson City and merely working a few hours each day after school. Search of the records revealed the truth of this statement and the acrimonious Senator McKittick, who has been dubbed "a forty-year-old edition of Jim Reed", immediately made known the fact that the girl was drawing $3.50 per day for type work, a sum equal to that allowed to the full-time clerks of the General Assembly, and by the statement of Gov. Winter, himself, this amount was for only a few hours each week, the few hours that could be spared after school which closed at four o'clock each day. To the answer of McKittick, who had apparently provided a Tarter in the hands of the gubernatorial aspirant, the latter has thus far made no definite response.

Not satisfied with the denouncement of Winter, McKittick and Nacy, vigorously condemning the entire State personnel of the past four years, have revealed some startling information along the same lines concerning the activities of State Auditor, L. D. Thompson, Republican candidate for Secretary of State. McKittick charges that according to the figures of Mr. Findley, defeated primary candidate for the place won by Thompson, the Auditor has employed at the present time on the State payroll a total of nine immediate members of his family, all in direct violation of the spirit of the Anti-Nepotism law.

The records, say McKittick and Nacy, as prepared by Mr. Findley, show a total of $170,757.95 that has been paid the Thompson family since 1921 up to July 1, 1932. This amount will reach $183,267.95 by the end of the present year. During 1921, the first year of the Thompson occupancy, the family received only $6,254.54 while the year 1932 will increase this amount to approximately $25,000.

"This represents an increase of more than 400 per cent," says Sen. McKittick in his addresses, "in the amount being paid the Thompson family by the State of Missouri. This increase has come while thousands have been unemployed, roaming the streets and roads in search of the privilege of earning a living while the Thompsons have grown fat on the tax paid money of Missouri citizens. And not satisfied with this stupendous amount, he is asking for another four years at a yet more lucrative place, where the appointive power will be yet broader and where it will be possible for yet more members of the Thompsons that may reach mature ages to get their names on the State payroll."

The list prepared by Mr. Findley in the Primary shows among the Thompsons on the payroll two sisters-in-law, one brother, a daughter, a nephew, one brother-in-law, a cousin, a son and a daughter-in-law.

Nacy, answering the argument concerning the Kansas City increased registration recently, explains that it is only slightly more than the increase in St. Louis and other centers of population. It is a mere swing to the Democratic ranks, explains Nacy, that is a natural course of events following the exposure of the Republic can machine in Kansas City where 17,000 Democrats were challenged and refused the right to vote in 1930 with entire precincts refused the right to vote in 1930 with entire precincts refused entrance into the polls in a wholesale manner.

This paid of intrip campaigners, not in the slightest fear of reprisal, even introduced records to show that Governor Caulfield himself is not above violating the Anti-Nepotism law; in corroboration of this accusation they point to the employment of his brother in St. Louis in the Automobile Registration department. They insist that more than $45,000 was spent last year on the general cost and upkeep of the governor's mansion, more than four times as much as an predecessor in this office ever requested. Incidentally, this amount spent for maids, butlers, chauffeurs, gardeners and what-not, represents more than eight times the salary of the Governor fixed by Missouri statute.

ENGINEERS RECOMMEND NORTH LOCATION OF ROUTE SN NEW MADRID

The Missouri State Highway Commission, Jefferson City, will conduct a hearing about November 4 to hear committees for and against a proposed location of farm-to-market road SN in New Madrid County. In non-technical language, the proposed road will be located on one of two preliminary surveys known as the north and the south locations.

Recommendations of the State Highway Department Division 10 office placed the point of beginning at a point on U. S. Highway 61, approximately six miles south of Sikeston; then east for four and three-quarter miles along what is known as Champion lane; a jog south about one-half mile and then east to the Mississippi County line to the end of the present concrete Highway No. 105, which runs east to the city of East Prairie. This highway is a part of the Secondary road system of the State.

Objections have been heard in New Madrid by citizens from Canolou, Matthews, New Madrid, Barnes Ridge, and from a few East Prairie citizens who would have the route located south of the recommended location. This group would have route SN follow the south survey beginning at a point on Highway 61 known as the Matthews lane running due east to the southeast corner of section 32, and then north to connect with Highway No. 105 leading to East Prairie. They contend that their location is now the most traveled road of the two locations, and further, that the south route would connect with the county Highway from U. S. Highway 61, due east through Matthews to Canolou assuring a practically straight road east and west across New Madrid County. They point out that it would also connect up with the farm-to-market road to be built north and south from Morehouse to a point near Lilbourn.

Inquiries at the Highway Division 10 office here recently relative to the two locations revealed that the north location was recommended wholly upon engineering facts and data. Both routes are subject to overflow in extremely high water, but careful surveys show without question of doubt that the north route has certain advantages over the south location from the standpoint of overflow.

The question of cost also enters into the calculation of the engineers who have determined that additional bridge and trestle work would run the cost up approximately one-third.

In the October 14 issue of the New Madrid Record, the front-page story under a headline "Will File Protest", leads one to believe that route SN would be projected west of Highway 61 when, as a matter of fact, route SN as now proposed, lies entirely east of Highway 61, and its location on the north or south surveys will not effect its future location west of the Highway. Highway Division 10 engineers give their definite assurance to the citizens of Matthews and others affected west of Highway 61 that their road will not be altered except to widen the roadway and improve the type of construction. In other words, Matthews, Canolou, Marston and points west of the Highway will not be affected adversely by the location of Route SN east to No. 105 even though it be placed on the north route which carries with it certain topographical, engineering, and economic advantages.

The Missouri State Highway program will deal separately with the road west of Highway 61, and it is a foregone conclusion that the route west of the Highway will connect with the north and south road from Morehouse to a point near Lilbourn.

The New Madrid Record failed to state this fact, although it is the most pertinent underlying cause of the objections to the north route—they fear that New Madrid will lose trade if the road is located a mile north of the south survey, when, as a matter of fact, eighty-five per cent of the trade on the north and south routes now goes to East Prairie. It is reasonable to suppose that trade now patronizing East Prairie, while using a country road, will not change life-long habits in order to trade in New Madrid, Matthews or Sikeston when and if the State builds a high-type, all-weather, gravel highway over either location to connect with a concrete road into their old trading place.

The Department of Agriculture at Washington, D. C., Monday forecast a production of 2,844,682,000 bushels of corn and a preliminary estimation of 711,707,000 bushels of wheat from 1932 crops.

A Lecture On Christian Science

Christian Science: What It Is and How It Works.

By Peter V. Ross, C. S. B., of San Francisco, member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, at Plaza Theater, Kansas City, Mo. Mr. Ross spoke in part as follows:

Not long ago, after delivering a lecture somewhat like this one, I stood watching the people leave the auditorium. Presently a woman in middle life came along. She was rather more than walking. She was so full of vigor that she was striding. As she passed me she said, "This is the first time I have walked out of the church." She had been helped into the place, she had been helped out of it, I do not know how many times, but on this occasion she walked out on her own power.

What had happened? Some of the fear which had been bearing her down into helplessness had been lifted and dissipated. Her thought had been clarified and uplifted. All a result of the truth she had heard. And with the transforming of her mind came the renewing of her body. For the human body is what the human mind makes it. When the human mind is depressed or confused with fear, it can scarcely be expected to construct a normal body. But when this mind is clear, buoyant, and confident, it constructs a better, a healthier, a stronger body. You may recall the words of Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, in this connection. She says: "Consciousness constructs a better body when faith in matter has been conquered. Correct material belief by spiritual understanding, and Spirit will form you anew" (Science and Health, page 425).

Take the time occasionally to reason along these lines: That God, instead of being a kinglike being off in the clouds somewhere, is Mind and Life. That He is here and now. Invisibly here it is true; he makes Himself visible or manifest through spiritual man, establishing divine intelligence and irrefragable life in each individual, for man is consciousness rather than corporeality, existing in Mind not matter, out of reach of the perils of mortal existence. As we work out this dynamic proposition and grasp its significance we will gradually find yourself lifted out of the realm of disease and danger into the upper realm of health and safety, because of your enlarged understanding of the Christ.

When you gain the true concept that God is Mind and Life, you see how it is that you are always in His presence. You are always in the presence of intelligence, are you not? So near is it that it is your life. You cannot get anything between you and your intelligence? Whence comes this intelligence? So far as it is sound and true it is the divine Mind asserting itself through you. God is nearer, it could be, than your thoughts. Your true self is at-one with Him; His intelligence is your intelligence and His life is your life, for there is only one Life! How then can your life be corrupted with disease? How can your intelligence be so confused as to believe in disease or evil? How can your well-being or existence be put in jeopardy? It cannot if you understand the truth of being.

BEST PLANTED IN THE FALL

Peonies are such hardy, thrifty perennials that they just grow and grow, and soon become firmly established. We are apt to overlook the fact, however, that new and improved varieties are constantly making their appearance. Some time it is well to dislodge the old varieties we get so used to seeing and substitute in their places some of the more recent introductions. These newer, finer sorts are sure to delight you with their improved qualities, and it will be interesting to plan a different arrangement of the Peony planting.

The American Peony Society publishes an authoritative manual in which about 300 selected varieties are carefully described. It is interesting to note that in this manual are listed the names of hundreds of other Peonies which the Society recommends to be discarded, not because the flowers are unworthy, but because the selected list contains newer types of similar appearance which are much more desirable.

An ideal background against which a Peony may display its magnificent flowers is a group of shrubs. Take care that sufficient space is allowed for the Peonies as their roots forage deep.

Peonies are such delightful flowers that it is difficult for one not to become an enthusiast to the point of growing dozens of varieties. If Peonies become one's hobby arrange the plants so they are displayed to best advantage. Create a special garden for them, and interplant some Delphiniums, hard Phloxes, Asters and perhaps Chrysanthemums, to provide interest when the Peonies are out of flower.

How to Plant Peonies

The ground should be deeply prepared and well fertilized. Be sure, though, that it contains no fresh manure, for if the roots come in contact with fresh manure, the plant will become sick and fail to bloom. Prepare the ground well in advance of planting, and make a thorough job of it for Peonies like plenty of rich soil. Allow about three feet of open ground to each plant and see that they get an abundance of sunshine.

The first season they should be protected a little from freezing in order to prevent their being heaved out of the ground. Afterward they are better off without litter or any covering which might harbor disease.

In planting Peonies do not bury them too deep. The eyes should be just under the surface when the soil has thoroughly settled. In newly made beds they should be set about two inches deep to allow for subsequent settling.

Peonies are reliable plants. They are remarkably free from insect or fungus troubles and you need rarely spray them. Just keep them well cultivated and fertilized with bone meal each year and they will then delight you with their constant improvement and flowers of unrivaled beauty.

Mrs. James Kevil was hostess to the Thursday Bridge Club.

The Ounce of Prevention

It has long been an accepted fact that "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure"—and the ounce of prevention in health maintenance is SANITATION. Without it, medical science would be hopelessly handicapped in combating disease.

To the master plumber goes the honor of leading the battle for domestic sanitation. The home of today is not only out of date without complete plumbing—it is a menace to those who live in it.

Carl "Pap" Riggs, New Madrid character about 50 years of age, was brought to the Emergency Hospital here at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon suffering from gunshot wounds, which he claimed self inflicted. Dr. H. M. Kendig removed a .32 calibre steel jacket bullet from Riggs' back. It had penetrated his abdomen and lodged about an inch from his backbone. Friends of the man expressed doubts about the wound being self-inflicted, and advanced the thought that a woman figured in the case.

Side Quit Hurting, Got Stronger, Well; CARDUI Helped Her

Mrs. R. L. West, of Huntsville, Ala., writes: "I was weak and run-down. I had a pain in my side, and I kept losing weight. I grew nervous over my condition—this was unusual for me, for I am very cheerful when I am well and don't easily get nervous. I knew I ought to take something. My aunt told me I ought to try Cardui, which I did. I began to feel better. I kept it up until I had taken three or four bottles. My side quit hurting and I was soon feeling strong and well."

Cardui is sold at drug stores here.

About $18 was realized from the bake sale held last Saturday by the Arbutus class of the First Baptist church.
